Changing Lives for Safer Communities

I never gave up because you made me believe in myself. A lot of people look at you funny and treat you different when you have a record. But you never did. So, you should be proud of yourself because you are changing people's lives with how you treat them.

“

I've currently been on probation for over a year and a half; I got a 3 year order so I'm currently at the half way point. While being on the order I have done so many beneficial things and met great people along the way. They've help me beat and manage addictions, talk about things I never thought I could ever get off my chest and feel better in myself. I now believe that I can do things that I always thought would be impossible. The support is absolutely incredible and support is always a call or text away. I've currently done my Duke of Edinburgh Bronze, battled an addiction, resolved my problems, got a healthy baby on the way, and currently working thanks to Probation.”

I can say with confidence that the staff at PBNI Magilligan are the best group of people that have worked with me. They are working tirelessly to get me released back into the community with a lot of support and guidance, which I am grateful for and I value this immensely.”

I would have died without the Substance Misuse Court. I know that for 100%. I think that drug testing and attending court were the number one thing for me. Seeing Probation and how they can do well motivated me to get my life back on track and get work or training. They believed in me.”

My experience with the staff at the Portadown office has been amazing. I cannot commend but every one of you for your level of commitment, sacrifice (it's not only a job), care and yes at some point love that you've shown me at every stage of my rehabilitation.”

Just a wee text to say I've completed the final timesheet and now have completed the 200 hours and to say thanks as well. I've successfully got a full-time job and am going to help out more with a local charity. Thank you and all the best.”

Probation has been very good and helpful to me. My Probation Officer is a great support and has offered me lots of counsel and advice.”

THANK YOU
